

Opera stars sing for joy at their wedding

It wasn't quite the Marriage of Figaro but one wedding ceremony at a Nantwich church at the weekend had a distinct flavour of the opera about it.

Two English National Opera singers, David Campbell, 31, of Pinewood Court in Wistaston, Crewe, and Fiona Vaughan, 29, of Greenway Avenue, Stone, tied the knot at St Mary's Parish Church on Saturday.

Despite their membership of the world-renowned company, the pair decided to let local choirs do the honours on Saturday.

The couple have sung with both the Leek and Nantwich Choral societies and the Nantwich society sang at the weekend.

Mr Campbell said: "My father is a vicar and he did the service which was beautiful."
